

One if by Land, Two if by Sea...

One if by Land, Two if by Sea...

Fun Facts About Paul Revere

1. Paul Revere was joined by two other men riding to warn American colonists about British military activity: William Dawes and Samuel Prescott.
2. Paul Revere was a silversmith by trade.
3. He did not own a horse but was an excellent rider.
4. He was a member of the Sons of Liberty.
5. Part of his mission on the night of April 18, 1775, was to warn John Hancock and Samuel Adams that the British were planning on arresting them.
6. All three riders were eventually captured by British patrols, but all were released after questioning.
7. When the British let Paul Revere go, they kept the horse he was riding to give to a British sergeant. He had to walk back to Lexington.
8. Paul Revere had eight children with his first wife, Sarah, and eight more with his second wife, Rachel.

Celebrate Paul Revere's Midnight Ride 250 Years Ago!

Color Paul Revere's lanterns on the back of this sheet and put them in your window on April 18th and 19th.

Learn more about Paul Revere's ride at:

america250.idaho.gov

TWO LIGHTS FOR TOMORROW

Daughters of the American Revolution
Idaho State Society